- ASSISTANT PRODUCER -

Website

www.guillaumefaguet.fr

Driven by my passion for Video Game Producing, my main ambitions are to create unique project visions, and to make my team's work environment the most pleasant possible. I have a background in game design, graphic design and programming, which allows me to understand my coworkers' work challenges and specifications.

I'll be graduating in July 2019 and searching for a Project Management position or internship.
